Supported Internet Browsers:

Note that when using older versions of a browser, glitches may appear in the program. The following are supported browsers.

Windows OS Users

- Microsoft Internet Explorer 9 and higher
- Google Chrome 3x (i.e., 35, 36, 37...) and higher • Mozilla Firefox 24 and higher
- Apple Safari 6 and higher

Mac OS Users

- Apple Safari 6 and higher
- Google Chrome 3x (i.e., 35, 36, 37...) and higher
- Mozilla Firefox 24 and higher

Note: While tablets, smartphones, and other mobile devices, as well as Internet Browsers not mentioned above may allow you to do some work on the course, they might not work in all areas.

Internet Browser Settings

Please refer to your browser's HELP features to check these settings. • Java Script should be enabled

- Cookies / Local Storage should be enabled

Plug-ins

Depending on the version of your browser, the following plug-ins may be required for some of the resources available in the online course:

- Adobe Flash Player (<https://get.adobe.com/flashplayer/>)
- Adobe Acrobat Reader (<https://get.adobe.com/reader/>)

These plug-ins are available at no cost. It is recommended that you review the list of plug-ins and install them prior to beginning your coursework.

All answers to exercise questions can be saved (“Guardar”), printed (“Imprimir”), and mailed to the Professor (“Enviar”). If you do not want to retain any answer or if you want to try doing the exercise again, click (“Cancelar”) and start over. If you want to go to another exercise on the same author, choose the exercise by clicking its tab in the menu.

If you want to go from one part of the program to another, click the appropriate tab in the menu. Do not use the browser arrows to move back and forth in the program. When you want to stop working on this author, simply click the “Índice” tab in the menu and, with the Index before you, choose the work of another author.
